LEGAL RECRUITMENT AGENCY'S IT SEARCH IS OVER

Rapidly expanding boutique executive search, recruiting and consulting practice for the legal sector Jepson Holt has ended its search for a new IT system very near to home.

The company, which specialises in retained executive search work, was founded by two former partners in Top 50 law firms with 25 years experience in legal practice

Phil Jepson, a Director of Jepson Holt said:

“After an extensive search to find software for total management of our legal recruitment files we were surprised and pleased to find that we had come full circle when we found Seneca CM. Whilst this has a rapidly growing following among legal professionals we found it also suited our needs perfectly.”

Chris Spencer, Development Director of emis takes up the story:

“When designing Seneca CM we wanted to ensure it would suit every sort of professional practice. We’re delighted to be working with Jepson Holt and will do our best to make sure their search was worthwhile.”
